

123 and 125 MAIN STREET.

We are cutting prices all over the housewhere we are over loaded, or to clear up the stock-come to us for the best bargains in Wichita. We are not afraid to put in the

A few pieces of fancy Foulard Silks to close out this week at the unheard of price of 35 cents a yard.

A big pile of short lengths of Colored Silks at half price--worths $1.00 for 50 cents, Silks worth from $1.25 to $175 for 75 cents per yard. Come and look these over, it will pay. point of vantage along the streets compos-

Big bargains in Dress Goods to clear up the stock--lots of fine goods at half, and less than half former prices. We never carry goods from one season to another. We are not world over had sent one or more of its afraid to take a loss and let out the goods representative personages to do honor to cheap. Look these over, it will pay.

Little Seersucker dress for children, one, two and three years—will be closed out now. One lot at 75 cents. and one lot at $1.00 each These are very cheap. Look them over and see if you don't think so too.

In the lace stock, we are selling out some control of assorted fancy control Laces; former prices from 10 to 20 ents per yard, all at 5 cents per yard. A lot customed sight, and the picture was interested fancy it was in the church, was anything but sented the fancy for a while. When all were seated there was quiet, but this was only temporary and leaded only long enough to be fined and kissed her hand and she kissed all, favoring some twice, making unusual demonstrations over the Princess of Wales and Princess Pertices. goods very cheap—a big lot of assorted fancy Torchon Laces; former prices from 10 to 20 of Gray and Brown Zephyr Embroideries and all over to match, and a lot of Brown and Cream Embroideries with narrow to match.

All these at half the formal and of the perioderies and the princess of Wales and Princess of Wales and Princess Beatrica. Other relatives of the queen then salute the perioderies and the princess Beatrica. Other relatives of the queen then salute the perioderies and the princess Beatrica. Other relatives of the curve of the princess Beatrica. Other relatives of the day was celebrated here by a procession of gossip, and it graduated rapidly into moise and hum.

When the princess of Wales and Princess of Wales and Princess Beatrica. Other relatives of the Chicago. Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany twice very heartily each time. All these at half the former prices. It will pay you to see these goods.

Cone lot sizes, 12 to 14 Colored Collars and uffs, very fine and new, well made and the est quality. This week on sale at 17 cents One lot sizes, 12 to 14 Colored Collars and Cuffs, very fine and new, well made and the best quality. This week on sale at 17 cents a set, one collar and one pair of cuffs for 17

I was a strange sight to see flasks and sandwiches exchanged in such a crowd, and eagerly used by numberless aristocrats unable longer to withstand the hunger or thrist. This business, when added to the hunger or thrist. The congregation are the congregation and the procession left. This business are three congregations and the procession left. The congregation are three congregations are three congregations and the procession left. This business are three congregations are three cong but two Dress Making Departments, one under Madame Chambers and one under Madame Liggett we can make dresses of all kinds at short notice and guarantee satisfaction.

It is this business, when added to the lam, at this steemed freevenil from the strong procession in this, this business, when added to the lam, at this steemed freevenil from the high of Saxony, the king of Belgium, the king of Belgium, the king of Belgium, the king of Belgium, the king of Hereleas, the crown prince of Austria, the crown prince of Austria, the crown prince of Greece, the first of the royal procession was composed to the base of the Nelson monument. The first of the royal procession was composed to the seer the sam unitude along the year wasting impenses and a few minor German, the queen for the Belgians, the crown prince of Greece, the grown prince of the problem of the prob

AGENTS FOR BUTTERICK'S PATTERNS

Foster's -- Kid -- Gloves.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

The Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Accession of Victoria as Queen of England and Empress of India, by Her Loyal Subjects, Assisted by Representatives of all Civilized People.

The Most Magnificent Event in the History of England-The Populace Turn Out En-Masse

With Unbounded Enthusiasm Gree the Queen and Suite-Incidents of the Gala Occasion-President Cleveland's Congratulations.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Victoria's Ac

LONDON, June 21 .- The first day of the fifty-first year of the reign of Queen Victoria over Great Britain opened with perfect ummer weather in London. Thousands along the route of today's procession in of the abbey, its rays fell upon an unaccustomed sight, and the picture was in-

of gorgeous character horsed with four bays each and all open.

The procession proceeded at a smart walking pace into Constitution Hill and with people, while the roof and steps of St. Martin's church, and the steps of the National gallery were packed with a dense mob. Hotel Victoria, Hotel Metropole and the Constitutional club building were crowded with sight seers.

From the new National Liberal club to St. Stephen's club the enthusiasm was indiscribable. In Parliment square there were the of the vast concourse.

The procession nearing the abbey, troops saluted, guns were fired, bells of churches rang out merry peals and flage were run up. After passing through the vestiliais under the salutations and received some injuries, but the was unhurt.

It is officially stated tonight that he was unhurt.

It was past 1 o'clock when the queen emerged from the abbey. She at once resumed her carriage and returned to Buck ingham place, this time taking the route she went after her coronation fifty years ago. Along Parliament street, except at the government offices, seats had been erected and gally decorated with bunting, etc.

The President's Congratulations.

The President's Congratulations.

Washington, D. C., June 21.—Following is the president's lettering in the president in the president in the was unhabited to night that he was unhabited. The washington in the subject to club the taking the route she went after her coronation fifty years ago. Along Parliament street, except at the government offices, seats had been except at the government offices, seats had been except at the government offices and the preside gallery was erected over the colonade of her majesty's theater, while 1,500 chairs were all filled at the Waterloo house in Cockspur street. At Trafalgar square the crowd was tremendous. The steps and lions of the Nelson column were crowded with people, while the roof and steps of St. Martin's church, and the steps of the National gallery were packed with a dense mob. Hotel Victoria, Hotel Metropole and the Constitutional club building were crowded with sight seers.

rang out merry peals and flage were run up. After passing through the vestibule her majesty was conducted to the grand dais under the lantern tower. She was surrounded by thirty two members of the royal family.

The scene in the abbey when the queen entered was dazzling. Ten thousand people were seated; they all rose; the women discarded their wraps and revealed their beauty and atthe full splendor of their beauty and at-

All the great learned societies and cor-porations were represented, while notables of the law, science, art and agriculture and workingmen's representatives from all parts of the United Kingdom had seats duly alloted to them. The archbishop of Canterbury and dean of Westminster alone conducted religious expresses. The overeing conducted religious exercises. The queen's advent was arranged so that she entered the abbey precisely at noon. Dr. Bridge, organist of the abbey had for the occasion a specially trained choir of 250 voices, selected from the control of 250 voices, selected from the control of 250 voices. lected from the great choirs of London, a number of prominent soloists, besides a large accompaniment of brass instruments and drums.

summer weather in London. Thousands of people who yesterday selected locations along the route of today's procession in order to retain them occupied them all night. At 5 o'clock this morning every point of vantage along the streets composing the royal procession route was secured. The scene at Westminster Abbey was most brilliant. Every seat was filled and company the choir. It was at this modern and drums. When the queen seached the abbey and the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the queen seached the abbey and the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the queen seached the abbey and the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the queen seached the abbey and the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the clergy at the head of the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the queen seached the abbey and the royal procession was formed in the marquee outside the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. When the clergy at the head of the royal procession moved into the clarge at the west door, state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms executed fanfares from the organ loft. night. At 5 o'clock this morning every point of vantage along the streets composing the royal procession route was secured. The scene at Westminster Abbey was most brilliant. Every seat was filled and every person present was a distinguished person. When their identities were enumerated it seemed as if every locality of the world over had sent one or more of its representative personages to do honor to England's queen on Britain's greatest holiday.

There never was probably in modern times assembled under one roof an audience so well and so brilliantly arrayed. Every man present entitled to were a uniform or decoration, had both on and burnished up. When the is uniform of decoration, had both on and burnished up. When the sun shone brilliantly through the noble stained windows of the abbey, its rays fell upon an unacoff the secured and the clark and so brilliantly arrayed. Every man present entitled to wear a uniform or decoration, had both on and burnished up. When the sun shone brilliantly through the holds the head of the first of the dates of the head of the clark and so brilliantly arrayed. Every man present entitled to were a uniform or decoration, had both on and burnished up. When the sun shone brilliantly through the holds taken of the beart of the death of the part of the death of the clark rails, or large the clark rails of the constructive fire that has ever visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has ever visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visited this city broke out in the furnity of the constructive fire that has over visi minster advanced to the altar rails. Dr. Bridges' special authem, selected by the queen last year as her jubilee anthem, was next rendered, followed by the choral "Gotha." composed by the prince consort. When the benediction had been said the queen's sons knell before her and kissed her head. There was the said the grant of the said t

When the Marquis of Salisbury, the queen's prime minister, entered and proceeded to the place set apart for him, he was cheered. When Cladetons had all this the congregation applauded warmly.

After the royal salutations had all the congregation applauded warmly.

The queen's carriage was a large one, of chocolate color, wheels red and royal arms of gold emblazoned upon panels of red morocco. All servants wore state liveries of scarlet and gold. Other carriages containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were considered to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family members of the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing members of the royal family were contained to the containing mem A number of persons along the route were crushed into insensibility and were removed to hospitals. Several policemen were overcome by heat and taken home in ambulances.

walking pace into Constitution Hill and then adopted a more deliberate gait. On reaching Piccadilly the queen was seen to look up at the Apsley House and as she passed the mansions of her intimate friends she glanced somewhat hastily at their abodes, more especially when passing the Duke of Cambridge, Baron Rothschilds, Baroness Burdette-Couttes and John Bright's old apartments.

It was not until the Devonshire House was reached that the queen began to realize the grand preparations that had been made to greet her. Here the Marquis of Hartington had a spacious gallery erected, from which many hundreds of gaily dressed ladies waived their handkerchiefs and cheered the queen.

Bullances.

The grand stand which was erected facting the Horse Guards and alongside the chapel royal was a memorial sign, the queen gratefully acknowledging the salutes and cheering of its occupants. Passing the noon day scenes were reenacted. A grand stand was also erected in front of the war office, and here the upper officials took all the best seats. As the procession passed into St. James street, the queen took a long glance and smiled at an aged lady who was at one of the windows in St. James palace. The lady was the duchess of Cambridge.

Passing up St. James street the pageant again turned into Piccadilly, which was jubilee congratulations to Queen Victoria:

Grover Clevaland, president of the United States of America, to Her Majesty, Victoria, queen of Great Bettatn and Ireland and Empress of India:

Great and good friend: In the name and on behalf of the people of the United States I present their sincere felicitations upon the arrival of the fiftieth anniversary of your majesty's' accession to the crown of Great Britain. I but utter the general yoice of my fellow-countrymen in wishing for your people prolongation of the reign so marked with advance in popular well-being, physical, moral and intellectual. It is justice and not adulation to acknowledge the debt of gratitude and respect due to your personal virtues, for their important influence in producing and causing the prosperous and well-ordered condition of affairs now generally prevailing throughaffairs now generally prevailing through out your dominions.

out your dominions.

May your life be prolongued and peace, honor and prosperity bless the people over whom you have been called to rule. May liberty flourish throughout your empire through just, equal laws, and your government be strong in the affection of all who live under it. And I pray God to have your majesty in His holy keeping. have your majesty in His holy keeping.

Done at Washington, this 27th day of May, A. D. 1887. GROVER CLEVELAND.
By the President. THOS. F. BAYARD,

Secretary of State.

Mr. Robert Douglas presided, assisted by Mr. Peter Hughes. The program was interspersed with excellent musical selec-tions. The arrangements were in charge of Mr. C. F. Mathieson and Mr. Chris

A Funeral Occasion.

The Fidelity Bank Closed.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 21.—The Fidelity National bank was closed this morning by order of the government through its representative, Eugene Powell.

A meeting of the board of directors was called at 7 e clock this morning and is now in session. The sidewalks are lined with records in the vicelets. people in the vicinity, who are quietly dis-cussing the situation without even knowing that the government bank examiner has been here. No notice has been posted has been here. No notice has been posted and no information given at the door. One irate depositor created a scene by forcing kimself half way into the door, where he received a heavy blow in the face from some one inside, and was finally taken away by officers.

One of the officers of the bank this morning assured a friend who had entrance to the safe description.

to the safe deposit walt that the bank would pay every dollar it owed. The general feeling has been that the bank is strong enough, but a feeling of mistrust has become engendered from various causes against a few of the officers.

Later—It is now stated that the directors have determined upon the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the business and an effort is beind made to obtain one Mr. Griffiths of the Citizen's National has been suggested, but it is thought he will not accept

At the meeting of directors this morning At the meeting of directors this morning Powell, the bank examiner, announced that owing to the impairment of the bank's resources the government would take charge of it and would appoint a receiver to wind up the business. John R. Decamp, vice president of the Metropolitan National Bank, was appointed receiver and he was placed in charge.

placed in charge.
CINCINNATI, June 21.—E. L. Harper made individual assignment to Eugene Zimmerman this afternoon and his firm, E. L. Harper & Co., dealers in iron, etc., also assigned to Zimmerman. The failures are the direct result of the closing of the Fidelity Bank. Assets $2,000,000; liabilities not given.
Cuicago, June 21.—News of the closing of the Fidelity National bank, Cincinnati, created no excitement here. The prevail-ing opinion among local bankers is that the closing will not affect Chicago banks in any way. The American Exchange bank and Bank

The American Exchange bank and Bank of Montreal are said to be the only banks here that have any of their drafts and it is claimed that they are fully protected.

WASHINGTON, June 21—The comptroller of the currency received a telegram from Mr. Powell, regular bank examiner for the western district of Ohio, saying he had taken charge of the Ndelite Note.

The Fidelity National Bank of Cin cinnati Closed by Bank Examiner Powell - Circumstances Incident.

The Interstate Commerce Commission Hears Complaint of the Burton Stock Car Co.-Section Six Expounded.

The Weather Report. WASHINGTON, June 22, 1 a. m.-The following are the indications: For Mis-ing warmer. For Kansas: Fair weather, northerly shifting to easterly winds, becoming warmer.

souri: North winds, fair weather become Lyons Loconics.

Lyons, Kan., June 21,-The safe in the burned Santa Fe depot was opened yestercity fire department, aided by the fort department, were not checked until nearly $250,000 of property had been destroyed.

{ Helmers & Parmalee lost in warehouse and stock $100,000, insurance $57,000.

Judge E. Stilling's building $15,000, insurance $7,500.

surance $7,500.

Alexander Caldwell building $27,000, insurance $10,000.

J. L. Byers' building $5,000.

M. P. Crans, an's stock $4,000.

Jaggard bus ing $6,000.

Pate & Furgeson stock $8,000.

F. Rolf's stock and buildings $6,000.

Mrs. Mary Maxwell building and stock $5,000.

R. B. Erga stock $6,500.

Rothenberg & Schloss stock $30,000.

E. J. Humphrey building $20,000.

Others adjoining lost smaller amounts.

his is a severe less but most of the finese This is a severe loss, but most of the firms SPRINGSTELD, Mo., June 21.—Nine witnesses vouched for S. I. Hazeltine's reputation for truth and verseity this morning. The witness who was interviewed by de-tectives, officers and attorneys said he knew nothing about George Graham getting off the train at Dorchester where he was station agent September 39, but when put on the stand by defense he swore that George and Sarah Graham got off the train at his depot on that night.

Other witnesses were introduced to show malice and prejudice on the part of the state's witnesses, and that Cora Lee always dressed in black since her father's death, seventeen years ago.

The testimony here closed and Prosecuting Attorney Patterson read the instruc-tions. They are simply that if the jury believe from the evidence beyond a doubt, etc. The instructions were agreed to with-out much debate, after which Mr. Patterson made the opening speech for the state. The court room at this point was crowded room. He made an able argument, closing at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Twice during lidaho are materially lower.

In order to connect with its railroad system at Portland, the Union Pacific will not find out who they were.

Mr. Patterson was followed by Col.

ited to six hours each so that the mysterious case will be ready to go to the jury at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Wyaudotte Train Wreckers. PAOLA, Kas., June 21.-Fred Newport the first degree and was arraigned on the charge of manslaughter in the first degree. To this he pleaded gullty, whereupon the jury was dismissed of further action in the above was brought about by the manage ment of Governor Johnson, the main coun-

The Ottawa Assembly.

Ottawa, Kan., June 21.—Crowds of tinue to come to the Ottawa assemily. This was a big day, there being sew new features introduced. Tomorrow Recognition day and very elaborate rangements have been made to celebrate The stockholders have decided that me land and more buildings are required accommodate students and visitors.

Reports were received from Elington, Junction City, Louis, Kansas City, Osborna, Garn Baldwin, Highland and Atchison testing to the great increase of the assembly every department. Col. Holmer Spradelighted a large audience at 3 o'clock was brilliant lecture on "John Milton."

At 8 p. m. the distinguished lecturery assembly assembly the great increase of the assembly every department. Col. Holmer Spradelighted a large audience at 3 o'clock was brilliant lecture on "John Milton."

At 8 p. m. the distinguished lecturery assembly the second lecturery as the second le The Ottawa Assembly.

More tents are still going up. The mal-titude continues to swell, and harmony and good fellowship prevails.

Interstate Commerce

Washington, June 21.—Twenty-five or thirty attorneys assembled this morning in the room in which the interstate commerce commission holds public sittings. When the chairman announced the commission ready to hear arguments, the case of the Burton Stock Car Company against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Hannibal & St. Joe, Rock Island, Chicago & Alton, Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Michigan Southern, Cleveland, Columbus & Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Burlington & Northern, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

The attorneys for the complainants first

Milwaukee & St. Paul.

The attorneys for the complainants first addressed the commission. The burden of complaint is the companies charge shippers an excess of 138 per cent for the privilege of shipping cattle in Burton cars. The prayer is that the companies be restraited from such discrimination. Gen. Butler, for complainant, argued in behalf of the justice of this demand and the crucity of shipping cattle in common cars. George C. Burton, inventor, explained his patent and the difficulty he had contended with.

with.

The commission promulgated the following this morning: Whereas, section six of the act to regulate commerce authorizes the commission to direct when joint tariffs shall be made public and prescribe measure of publicity to be given same, or dered as follows:

Joint tariffs, rates, fares, or charges outsidished by two or more common carriers.

dered as follows:

Joint tariffs, rates, fares, or charges established by two or more common carriers for the transportation of passengers or freight passing over continuous lines or routes, copies of which are required by the sixth section of the act to regulate commerce, to be filed with the commission, shall be made public as far as the same relates to business between points connected by lines any single common carrier required by the first paragraph of said section; to make public schedules, rates, fares or charges. Such joint tariffs shall be so published by plainly printing same in large type of at least the size of ordinary pics, copies of which shall be kept for use of the public in such pieces and in such form as that they can be conveniently inspected at every depot or station upon the lines of carriers uniting in such joint tariff where any business transacted in competition with business of carriers whose schedules are equired by law to be made public as afore said.

Steamer Westerd Marchael School.

Steamer Wrecked-Eight Lives Lost. CLEVELAND, O., June 21.—The steam barge R. H. Walters, a 200 ton vessel, owned by John Homeguardner of Sandusky, was sunk in a storm off Black River, Ohio, about 7 o'clock last evening and eight lives were lost. The vessel left Marblehead yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and when off Black River the captain's wife, who was on board, begged the master to put in at Lorsin as the threaten. master to put in at Lorain as the threaten-ing weather slarmed her. The vessel was headed toward the harbor, but was scarcely turned about when she was struck by a terrific squall. The wind blew the barge round and round, the hold filled with water and in half a minute she sank. The captain, mate and two of the captain's sons saved themselves by clinging to float-ing fenders. This morning the cries of the shipwrecked quartette attracted the at-tention of the look out on the steamer Pearl. A life boat was lowered and the surviving shipwrecked mariners were brought to Cleveland.

Business Connection Absolved. San Francisco, June 21.—The Union Pacific made the announcement today that it had practically severed its business rein tions with the Central Pacific railroad, as tions with the Central Pacific railroad, as affecting freight business between San Francisco and all points on the Oregon Short Line, Utah Northern & Montana Union railroad, Utah Central railway, Ogden to Spanish Fork inclusive and points on the Northwestern Pacific, Garrism to Helena inclusive.

The rates it makes to all points are virtually the state of the points of the state of the state to suffocation and seats were discarded in tually the same as formerly over the Cen-order that there might be more standing trail Pacific, the same is the case in rates run three steamers out of this port. They are the Columbia, State of California and George S. Rathbun for the defense. The Oregon. Commencing tomorrow these arguments of the state and defense are lim- will leave Sun Francisco alternately every

New Postal Convention. WASHINGTON, June 21 .- The text of the postal convention between the United States and Mexico was recently ratified by was released from the charge of murder in the first degree and was arraigned on the today by President Cleveland. It makes complete and was arraighed on the charge of manslaughter in the first degree. To this he pleaded guilty, whereupon the jury was dismissed of further action in the case. The forenoon was consumed in taking estimony in the case and the action related above was brought about by the manage ment of Governor Johnson, the main council for defendant. country of origin, provided rates of pos-tage and registration fees shall not be less than prescribed by the universal postal union. Each country retains all fees col-ment of Governor Johnson, the main counsel for defendant.

The counsel for the prosecution, and Governor Johnson for the defense, will leave in the morning for Woandotte where they go to conduct the trial of Lloyd, who is charged with killing Geo. Carisie, the front brakeman who went over with the engine the night of the fatal wreck.

The action of Newport was a great sur prise to all and it certainly proves that an alibi for Lloyd and himself is a falsehood which was testified to here a few days ago in the Lloyd defense.

Bonds Carried.

Wameoo, June 21.—The vote for the $275,000 Missouri Parific bonds is not all in, but it is generally conceded that they have carried by a small majority.

Newton, Kan., June 21.—An election was held today to vote bonds in the sum was held today to vote bonds in the sum Hartington had a spacious gallery erected, from which many hundreds of gaily dressed ladies waived their handkerchiefs and cheered the queen.

The fronts of Burlington Arcade, Royal academy, Egyptian hall, St. James parish church (where 1,000 children were seated and sang "God Save the Queen,") and but seem of Geology were all packed with hunan belings.

Regent Circus, where six main streets are generally and the procession finally buildings along the way were one mass of heads. Many of the shops hereabous had their fronts removed and elegant bondoirs formed in their place. The shouts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The houts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The houts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The houts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The shouts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The shouts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but their place. The shouts of the people were heard as one vast roar.

Many American lacities and gentitemen had secured seats at a paintal commercial but the properties and the procession was now that they are fully protected.

Washing the date of the fred the date of the currency received a telegrand of the western district of this, was testified to here a few days ago which was testified to here a few days ago which was testified to here a few days ago which was testified to here for the gent was the full of the course, of the proper of the fedelity National Bank